ANDY'S LION TALE

A TWO REEL GUMP COMEDY.....FEATURING JOE MURPHY

Chester is reading from a travel book that the best way to catch a lion is to use a skunk. Andy poo-poops the idea and gives Chester a glowing cock and bull story of his experiences in Africa where he overcame a band of savages by shaking cocoanuts on their heads and was immediately afterwards attacked by a lion. This was mere ~~child's~~ child's play for the ferocious Andy, always ready for a little fight. After struggling with the beast with his naked hands, he deftly tied a knot in his tale and gave him the laugh.

Just as Andy's story is finished an escaped lion jumps in the window. Chester and Min flee from the room, leaving Andy alone with the bigcat. Andy dives under the table and Chester hollers, "Tie a knot in his tail, papa!" Andy is clawed and chased around the house, and the three colored servants are menaced by the man eater when Chester comes to the rescue with a skunk.

The little animal causes them all to faint away and the lion to drop dead.
